

Julie Hoy is: a wife and mother, a singer/songwriter, storyteller, humorist and inspirational speaker. With faith, humility and great joy she blesses others with the gifts she has been given to share. Her message is simple; God has a unique roll for each of us to play in our own lives. Every day is an opportunity to serve, to look, listen and discover that which God has for each of us to do.

Now booking for 2014-2015!

TESTIMONIALS

"I have personally found Julie's music inspirational. Her lyrics and the journey of writing a song tell a realistic story of searching for and finding God in everyday experiences."

Rev. George Wolf, Holy Family Parish, Portland, OR

"Many people said Julie's performance blessed their souls and was the highlight of the conference for them. I agree!"

Becky Lyles, Secretary, Idaho Christian Fiction Writers, ID

"Julie Hoy is a rare talent - someone who has a unique, compelling and beautiful voice which she shares both through song and testimonial. You will be blessed by Julie's voice, talents, heart and compassion."

Brandy O'Bannon, Director of Development, Blanchet Catholic School

"Our monks and seminarians were inspired and moved by Julie's sweet voice and deeply spiritual music. It was an unforgettable evening of beauty and praise."

Jodi Kilcup, Director of Development, Mt. Angel Abbey Seminary

- Classroom Visits
- Workshops
- VBS, Camps, Faith Formation
- Retreats
- Keynote Speaking
- Concerts

Suitable for teachers, students, churches & groups of all ages!

If you are interested in exploring the possibility of bringing Julie to your church, school or community, Contact can be made through her website, mail or phone. Every opportunity is prayerfully considered.